

Introduction

Secretaries, teachers, librarians - you might think that these types of chicks are sweet and innocent when they go home for the night. However, you would be wrong - oh so wrong. Haven't you ever been told to watch out for the quiet ones? These nerdy chicks get home and demand a big, messy facial right on their eyeglasses and Creamed on Glasses is there to film it!

Adult Review

Creamed on Glasses strives to make every nerdy girl fantasy you've ever had come true, so it's time to see just how well they've pulled it off. The first thing you'll notice when logging in is that you land on a network hub page - it turns out that Creamed on Glasses is part of a larger network called Pack of Porn. This is one of the better network layouts that BiReviews has seen lately, with the top navigation bar taking you to the site list or the models, and then various drop downs letting you browse around by site name, model name, or niche. There's also a nice keyword search box if you prefer that method of searching for the perfect porn.

Creamed on Glasses has its own page showing off the latest updates and the rest of the collection. The entire girls in glasses collection is 41 full length porn videos and photo sets, and the updates seem to be fairly slow at around once per month.

The video page has a pretty good selection of options - you can see the nerdy babes getting banged as streaming flash videos, Creamed on Glasses uses Silverlight software which means you may have to download a simple plugin for your browser first.

For downloadable options, you get three different qualities of wmv and either full scene or clip downloads. The best quality is 640x480 and shows off these sassy ladies in all of their glory. It's not quite HD video but it is good enough to watch full screen without having your view be as cloudy as the one these girls are getting through their cum covered glasses!

You may expect to see vidcaps alongside the videos but we were happy to see that they had taken the time to film full photo sets with each. They are a hefty 100+ photos each, and look pretty damn good at 800x1200. You can download the sets in a zip if you want to browse them on your own time.

The Pack of Porn Network is included with your membership and it gets you access to 8 sites in total, a dream network if you love anal or teens. That seems to be most of the content they offer, although you do give a taste of general hardcore here and there. The network itself updates every two to three days, but Creamed on Glasses collection is still sorta small.

There's no two ways around it - Creamed in Glasses is a small site, and the slow update schedule is not helping that at all. Now there is a big lack of girls in glasses sites, so if you're really jonesing for a fix then you could do a lot worse than here. It would be better if you had some interest in at least one of the other network sites to make it worth your while, but BiReviews understands if you have a hard time resisting the nerdy siren call.

Porn Summary

One of my ultimate fantasies is to get some quiet librarian chick all hot and bothered, so Creamed on Glasses does flip my switch. Sadly I was left wanting more once I got through the collection.
