

Introduction

Unlike anything else online, Crygasm is an adult site that features crying pornstars who get so emotionally overcome by the mixture of passion and pleasure during their performances that they begin to cry on camera! There is something unbelievably sexy and truly genuine about the beauty and raw excitement of these exclusive 1920x1080 HD porn videos available only from the place where pornstars cum to cry... Crygasm.com!

Adult Review

Crygasm is easily the most unique site launched in the last few years. With so many porn sites focusing on sucking and fucking, and many using the same pornstars in all their members areas it has become very difficult for any to stand out from the rest... but Crygasm.com definitely does at least that!

Featuring some of today's best known adult film starlets and some amateur porn models as well, Crygasm starts off seeming like a more typical sex toy masturbation porn site and then quickly becomes an incredibly different experience for its members to savor.

Crygasm is where pornstars cum to cry, and that slogan means exactly what it says! Each scene stars a different sexy lady with a great variety of gals brought in to do their most intense scenes ever. Some are having a rough day, some are emotional about auditioning and some just can't hold back the excitement as their oversized sex toys allow them to having an orgasm so overwhelming that the wall in their mind between pleasure and pain begins to warp right in front of your eyes. That final moment of release is what they call a Crygasm and it's a whole lot more than any normal orgasm you've ever seen!

Rhiannon Alize is probably our favorite performer on the site, and the way those tears glisten on her face as her whole body contorts itself and every muscle tightens while she submits completely to the power and force of her own sexuality... you HAVE to see this exclusive crying sex video for yourself!

Each scene is filmed in 1920x1080 HD video that makes it perfect for watching on a full size HD television. Scenes are also available as high-def Flash online streams for viewers who prefer not to bother saving porn onto their computers. Crygasm also offers lower quality versions that are dial-up friendly and even has iphone-ready porn videos for perverts on the go!

Along with every scene you also get 100s of super-high-def pictures as big as 2200x2200 that look great as print-outs or in offline slideshows. The pics really capture every moment of emotion and give you insight into what was going through each pornstar's mind as she gave herself over to you completely.

Along with the exclusive video, the Crygasm crew has also arranged a special set of Showcase videos that are exclusively available within the members area to give you a sneak peak at many of the other high quality pornsites online today. We aren't sure how they got the rights to show all these videos but we checked and its all legal porn... and well worth watching!

Fans of erotic stories and adult cartoons are also well taken care of by Crygasm because it provides many exclusive original stories and even some naughty Crygasm cartoons as well. They allow members to send in story ideas and even publish some of the better member-submitted stories online too.

All that on one site is something we definitely think our readers will quickly fall in love with, whether you are a man, a woman, gay, straight (or very in-between!) Crygasm has something new and very sexy to show you. However, the Emotion Porn Network is growing rapidly and now your membership also includes access to Hall Of Fame Porn and Candid Pornstar as well!

Porn Summary

It's not like I would have thought of watching women cry during sex, but the way it's presented... WOW!
