

Introduction

A gorgeous solo girl site starring I Love You Madison and some of her sexy friends in eye-popping 1440x1080 scenes that turn sexuality into the sweetest tasting eye candy you ever did see! The network access and frequent updates make this a site worth joining but as with all solo girl sites it really is more about the star of the show than the show itself. If Madison makes your mouth water, take her tour and see all she has to offer!

Adult Review

I Love You Madison is a site devoted to the solo girl adventures of it's main starlet Madison, but the site offers you a whole lot more than that once you step inside it. As part of a large network of sites, you get all the excitement that a solo girl offers and the huge archives of a professional studio as well.

The attraction to most solo girl sites is that they feature a model who has a really special look, even though you can rarely if ever find her on any other websites. This is the Official Website of a blonde teen named Madison who has a really innocent demeanor most of the time, and a nasty side that comes out once you has had a chance to get warmed up. The fun part of this site is that you really do get the feeling Madison is a sweetheart whose horizons keep getting expanded by friends and costars who make guest appearances with her from time to time.

The movies on I Love You Madison are filmed in the clearest and most high resolution format we have ever seen. 1440x1080 looks crystal clear and razor sharp even when we displayed it on our 47" flat screen television. You have got to download one of the trailers of this site tour to see the difference for yourself. Full screen it's like looking in through a window at Madison rather than watching a movie!

Along with all the videos you also get plenty of high resolution picture sets to thumb through, personal blog entries to read, access to a members only message board with a very active web community of pervs and all of the other websites listed on the Networked section of this review. All in all it's a huge amount of quality porn for the admission price of just one site.

Porn Summary

To be honest I was not as into Madison as I am into some of the other sites on this Network. That being said, this Network really rocks. Some of the sites are a bit more extreme than you may be used to, but the quality of the productions is top shelf and the message board community really is very cool.
