

Introduction

Sandys Fantasies is a sexy new solo girl site that features Sandy, an all natural blonde babe suitable for spokes-model work, and her gal pals in a variety of softcore, solo hardcore and occasional girl on girl action. As with all solo sites we suggest you take the tour because if you like the model you are unlikely to find her anywhere else. Also, this site features true glamour modeling as presented by world class photographer Denys Defrancesco. So, it gets some bonus points for artistic flare as well.

Adult Review

Sandy is a sexy model at the peak of her popularity and she knows it. That leads her to the conclusion that she should be able to call her own shots and take more control over her own content.

After playing hardball with several studios, Sandy was able to get the green light to produce her own hardcore website along with the help of a world class team of talented photographers, designers and web programmers. The goals Sandy set were so far out in fantasy land that her own team started calling the site Sandys Fantasies. The name stuck, and the rest is history!

Sandy wanted a site that featured plenty of bicurious performers in the highest quality high definition videos. The result is a collection of 132 top talents giving the camera their best hardcore performances in exclusive 1280x720 resolution. Some of these scenes are even hotter than Sandy ever imagined they would be!

There are not a lot of quality sites put together from the female perspective and Sandys Fantasies may well be one of the very best. Take the tour and checkout the trailers they offer. That will give you a good idea of what you'll find inside after you join. If this site had a large Network of included sites and some man on man content it would be damn near perfect!

Porn Summary

The best scenes on this site were of the girl / girl variety. Some clips seemed to download a bit slower than they should have, but the quality is definitely obvious in every update.
